

Flourish

My Journal

This journal is offered as an aid to accompany the Flourish services. Each week there is a question to help start reflections to support the theme.

Please add your own thoughts and use as is best for you.

A Prayer from the President of the Methodist Conference

Inviting God,
help us to see that every person
has a place in your presence.

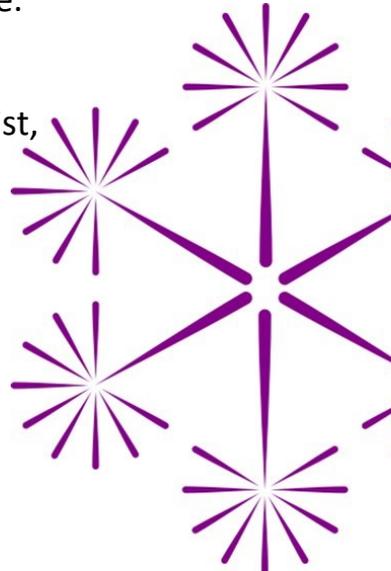

Forgive us
when we try to limit our friendships to people who look like us, act like us, believe like us.

Through you Holy and transforming Spirit,
move us from exclusion to inclusion,
from formulators of fences
to builders of bridges,
from indifference
to all-encompassing love.

In the name of Jesus Christ,
our Saviour.
Amen.

WEEK 1 - Introduction

Choose an image from one of these bible passages:

* Isaiah 35: 1-2

* Psalm 92: 12-15

* John 15: 5-17

Record in the box below how it speaks to you about flourishing:

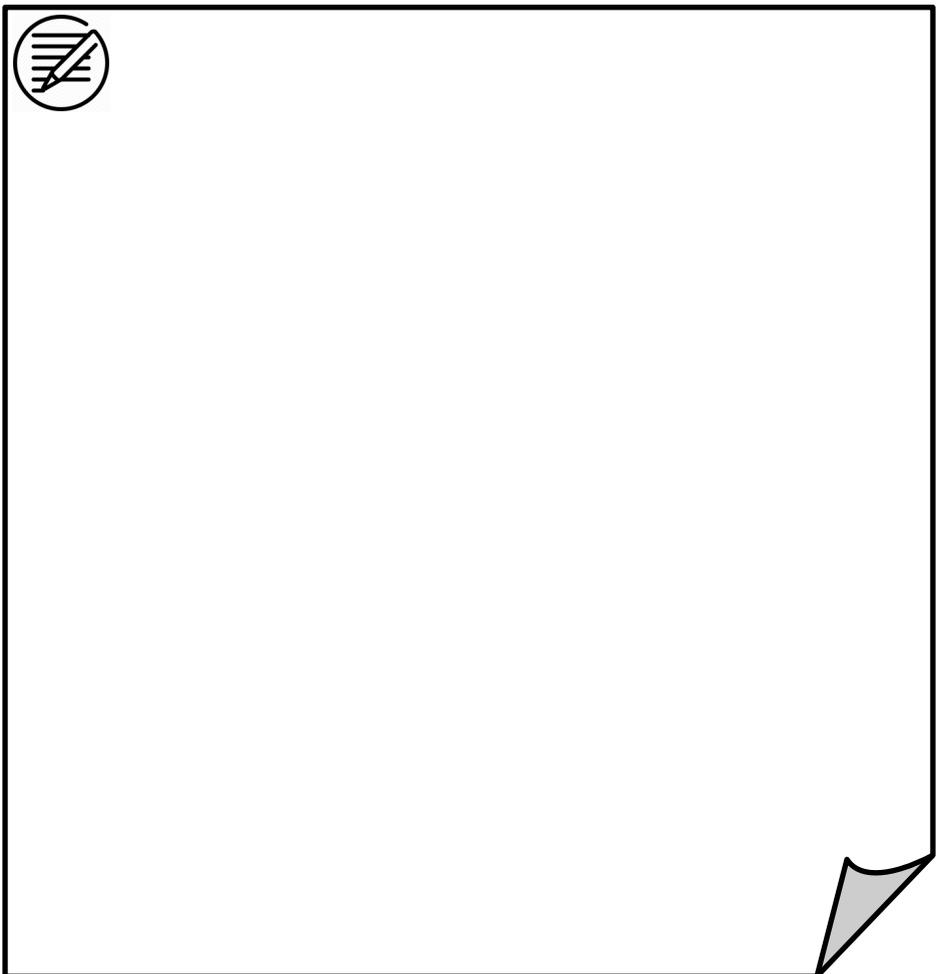

A large rectangular box with a black border, intended for writing. In the top-left corner, there is a circular icon containing a pencil and several horizontal lines, representing a writing or drawing tool. The bottom-right corner of the box is folded over, showing a grey shaded area.

WEEK 2 - Flourishing In God's World

Is there a biblical character whose role you particularly identify with?

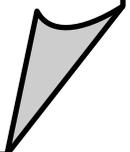

Find a bible passage to read and write down your reflections:

The form is a large rectangular area with a black border. In the top-left corner, there is a circular icon containing a notepad with a pencil. In the bottom-right corner, the corner of the box is folded over, creating a triangular shape that is shaded gray, suggesting a page being turned.

WEEK 3 - My Personal Flourishing

Reflect on one experience of personal flourishing you've had during the past two years:

WEEK 4 - Flourishing As God's People

Is there something new you would enjoy contributing to your church? Is there a burden you need to lay down? Do you need to talk to someone about this?

Finding the Place

Creator God,
In the wonderful world you have made
Every creature has a home.
The stork nests in treetops,
And though the strong winds blow
It does not fall.
Goats run on dizzy heights
Each hoof placed
On impossible footholds
With effortless precision.
And in among the rocks
In clefts and holes
Small furry creatures
Scamper and hide
When the eagle comes.
The sea is home
To things that creep and scuttle
Float and swim
Or simply cling for all they are worth
To the storm battered rock.
All give you glory
For each is wonderfully made
And their place is prepared for them.
O God, may I find my place
The home you have in mind for me
Where I can be
Your truest child
And find myself
In finding you. Amen

Postscript

Over these past weeks has something in particular spoken to you about flourishing? A hymn or poem, story or picture, word or deed?

Why is it important to you?
